CONGREGATIONAL HYMN

O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST,

1. O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!
2. Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.
But to meet Him empty-handed,
Thought of that now clouds my brow.
3. Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
4. A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.
5. O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home. A-MEN

REV. (DR.) WILLIAM OKOYE

In the book of Genesis, God revealed how He originally intended things to work, especially in chapters one [1] and two [2]. God intended for us to be fruitful: "...Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and the small animals that scurry along the ground" [Genesis 1: 26 – 28].

It is the will of God for every one of us to be fruitful [and productive]. Therefore, a lack of fruitfulness means there is a problem. Anyone that is not productive or fruitful does not glorify God because everything He created is to be fruitful and multiply, especially when you consider what it cost God to redeem us. Given the sacrifice He made for our sakes, God wants to reap the benefit of His investment in our lives and it would be tragic and wicked if we deny Him the pleasure.

Jesus gave us the key to spiritual fruitfulness in John 15: 1 - 5, which says: "I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn't produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more. You have already been pruned and purified by the message I have given you. Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me." If you desire to be fruitful and produce results, you have to deliberately put yourself on the path to spiritual growth; stay connected to God. If you unplug yourself from God, you will die. So you must take your relationship, communion and fellowship with God very seriously. The more you spend time with Him, praying, reading the Bible and meditating on His word, the more you grow and the more you grow, the more you bring glory and honor to God.

GOD EXPECTS US TO BE FRUITFUL IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

1. Character [Matt 7: 15 – 29]. God wants us to bring forth fruits that show we have repented: "...now the ax of God's judgement is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire." [Matt 3: 7 - 10]. If you keep coming to church with nothing to show in your life/character that you've been reformed, then you are a disgrace to the kingdom of God. You cannot preach like angels and live like demons. One of the reasons why it has been difficult to win so many people to Christ is because of some Christians who are living like devils. If we have more Christians that live the way God wants us to live in our country, Nigeria would have been a better place. One of the core mandates of this church [ACFM] is to raise Christ-like disciples to be agents of change in the society. This is why we are involved in both national and global transformation.

2. Soul winning. The church is not growing as it ought to, and the only way growth can occur is if we take soul winning seriously, as a matter of life and death. We are saved to serve and born again to reproduce. We are the extension of the life and ministry of Christ in today's world where He is not physically present. We should pray that God would place unbelievers in our paths for us to minister to them through our lifestyle and preaching so that we bear fruits that bring honor and glory to God. Note that nothing in this world will follow you to heaven except what is done for the Kingdom of God. It is what you will be rewarded for in heaven and it is what people will remember you for here on earth. So may God help us make soul winning a way of life. Don't spend all your time discussing politics/business with friends who are on their way to hell without discussing the salvation of their soul.

3. Through the use of our gift(s), talent(s) and treasure: "In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift of showing kindness to others, do it gladly" (Romans 12:6-8). Each one of us should add value anywhere we find ourselves; let other people benefit from us: "God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another" [1 Peter 4: 10].

Remember: we are called by God to be fruitful and to add value that positively impacts the lives of other people: "For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago" (Ephesians 2:10).
